Life is Calling

Hearing Health & Resources— CaptionCall

Do you struggle to hear or understand what people are saying to you on the phone? Would it be nice to not only hear, but SEE what people are saying to you on the phone? Well, does CaptionCall have a solution for you! David Johnson, an account manager with CaptionCall Phones will be talking about a revolutionary Caption Phone service. The Caption Phone service is federally funded and is an absolute “no cost service to those that qualify”. It is a provision of the Americans with Disabilities Act and has helped thousands and thousands of individuals that struggle to hear on the phone. He will be talking about how to receive this “No Cost Service”, and about the products themselves. A demo phone will be available, so you can get a hands-on experience as well. They also offer a red-carpet service where a CaptionCall trainer will set up the phone for you and train you how to use it at your place of residence.

Steeple Speaker Series

It's Never Too Late to Say YES to Bigger Things

Motivational speaker Lin Bruce is a late blooming cross-country bicyclist, whose first transcontinental ride was in honor of her 60th birthday in 1999. Using stories of her bicycle adventures as a metaphor for “reaching further” in one’s life, Lin encourages people of any age to reach beyond perceived limitations, “stretching for ways to bring more life to your days”. Lin is a walking testimonial to the power of staying active later in life and an expert on overcoming your own perceived limitations. Don’t miss this presentation that may inspire you to say “YES” to something new.
