STORY OF THE WEEK

STOP DRUNK DRIVING!!!

Hey Rosemount! This week we have been very busy putting drunk drivers behind bars... Please remember that driving drunk is a hazard for everyone on the road, not just yourself.

24,862 motorists were arrested for DWIs, an average of 68 DWIs per day in MN in 2017. (dps.mn.gov) There is no excuse for drunk driving! Call for a ride! Order an Uber! Or just don't drink and drive... Here are just some of the DWI arrests this week!

- A 30-year-old male provided a breath sample of .12 and was arrested for 4th degree DWI. The traffic stop was the result of him speeding.
- A 42-year-old female provided a breath sample of .20. She was charged with a 3rd-degree gross misdemeanor DWI.
- A 30-year-old male provided a breath sample of .13 and was arrested for 4th degree DWI. The reason for the traffic stop was dark tint, driving 10mph below the speed limit, and failing to stop at a stop sign fully. The driver admitted to having a loaded pistol in the middle console of his vehicle. He did have a permit to carry. His citation will include the violation of carrying a pistol while under the influence of alcohol.
- Officers responded to a two-vehicle accident near CR42 and Shannon Parkway. One of the drivers, a 57-year-old male, appeared to be intoxicated. He provided a breath sample of .31 and was arrested for 2nd degree DWI. There were no injuries in the accident.
- A 43-year-old female was arrested for 4th deg DWI. She provided a breath sample of .14.

ROAD RAGE AT CUB FOODS

A small case of road rage in the Cub Foods parking lot. Two vehicles were on their way out of the parking lot when the driver of the front vehicle got out of his car and began yelling at the back vehicle driver. An argument ensued.

The front driver went back to his car and retrieved a marker. He went to the rear vehicle, scribbled on the windshield, and then got back into his vehicle and drove away.

ROOFING CONTRACTOR UNDER WATCH

There have been three separate reports of a roofing contractor that inspects a homeowner's roof, and the homeowners believe he is damaging the roof intentionally while inspecting it. Officers have investigated each report and have not found enough evidence to support any criminal activity. Each homeowner is entitled to bring a civil action against the roofing contractor

THREATENING MESSAGES

A female reported that her ex-boyfriend was sending her threatening messages and was on his way over to her residence. Officers reviewed the messages and found no direct threats. However, the female was provided with various resources and information and advised on obtaining a restraining order. Officers later spoke with the male party involved, and he was advised to limit his messaging and calling.

TEENS SNEAK INTO HOME THROUGH WINDOW

Officers were dispatched to a call after somebody saw teenage girls sneaking into the windows at a neighbor's house. Officers spoke to the individual staying at the home and were advised that he was only supposed to have two friends over but snuck 7 or 8 female friends into the house against his dad's rules. All were cooperative, and the teenage girls left the home.

MALE THREW CHAIR AT WALL

Hang-up turned into an assault in progress when a male suspect left before the female calling 911. Officers searched the area but had no suspect information and were told that the male left in a red/orange truck. Officers responded to the home and learned that the suspect was a friend of the victim and were provided with limited info.

Through further investigation, officers were able to determine the male suspect's identity and address of Brooklyn Park, but he could not be located. He reportedly shoved the female into a desk and threw a chair at the wall. A citation was issued for 5th-degree assault and 4th-degree damage to property. An alert was sent to area agencies to be on the lookout for him.

TRAFFIC STOP LEADS TO ARREST

Officers conducted a traffic stop for an equipment violation. The driver had two active warrants: one out of Pine County for Possession of Dangerous Drugs and one out of Washington County for misdemeanor theft by swindle. He was arrested on his warrants. The driver also did not have a valid driver's license, so the vehicle was towed. During an inventory of the vehicle, a large amount of suspected stolen property was located. The case is under investigation.

STOLEN GUN

Report of a gun stolen from a vehicle located on the 139XX block of Dander Court.

BROKEN POT LEADS TO DOMESTIC

Officers were dispatched to a report of a domestic between a male and his girlfriend's son. The issue apparently began when a pan was broken after being thrown into a sink. This led to a verbal altercation, and one of the parties took a PlayStation outside and threatened to run it over. Officers arrived and mediated the situation and provided the family with tactics to avoid a situation like this in the future

HUSBAND DESTROYS HOME

Officer assisted a woman with retrieving her property from her house. Once inside the home, it was found that her husband had damaged the house: appliances, furniture, walls, and TVs were destroyed. The husband also has a felony DOC warrant for his arrest.

TRAFFIC STOP LEADS TO ARREST

While on a traffic stop at County Road 42 and Shannon Parkway, an officer noted that the driver displayed signs of impairment. After conducting field sobriety tests, the driver was deemed to not be under the influence, but officers located felony-level controlled substances and needles in his vehicle. The driver was arrested.

OFFICERS HELP FEMALE WITH DEMENTIA

Officers received a driving complaint on a vehicle traveling eastbound in the westbound lanes of Co Hwy 42 near DCTC. Officers were unable to locate the vehicle. 12 minutes later, another driving complaint SB on Rich Valley Blvd heading towards Rosemount wall called in. Officers located the vehicle at Blaine Ave/140th St E and found an elderly female with a dementia episode. Officers located a phone number for the son-in-law who lives in Rosemount and contacted him to bring his wife (daughter of female w/ dementia) to the scene. Officers brought the daughter to the location, and she took control of the vehicle. Everyone went home safe!

PLEASE WAIT YOUR TURN...

A vehicle was slowing to turn into a local park. The car behind was too impatient to wait, passed on the right side. They ended up side-swiping the first car when they took a right turn into the park. The impatient driver didn't see the other car's blinker.
